

Hungry Ghost Workshop

Saturday March 3, 2012

9am – 12:30pm

Every Sunday the Hungry Ghosts are fed in the Gate of Sweet Nectar service. But who or what are these ghosts? And why are we feeding them? Perhaps they are spirits of our ancestors, those suffering or cast away to some underworld out-there somewhere. Or perhaps they are parts of us that are hurting, buried, underdeveloped or disowned. In all cases we ceremonially feed the Hungry Ghosts to satisfy their needs and free them from suffering.

In this workshop you will each create a Hungry Ghost out of clay. This is a fun and playful way to get to know an inner part of your self that is hungry. You do not need to have any artistic skills to do this. All are welcome.

The fee for the workshop is $20

Scholarships are available to those unable to pay.

All clay materials are included and a light snack provided.

Space is limited to 15 people, so sign up ASAP!
